

Why take a Smart® Retreat of all-inclusive love?

R009-aL

Upholding Natural Law for all mankind by offering free resources, Loquate is a charitable center for peace that uses technology for intentional community building. Its core competence is community. Its major public charity financial support comes to Loquate from those who believe in what Loquate does: Helping another accomplish that which they value the most for the common good. That is extreme value!

Loquate Smart® small groups work universally.

- A Smart® small group works in “unity for all” because it follows principles of Interfaith Dialogue and, as a Smart® group, it satisfies innate needs common to all mankind. Thru 12 steps members change themselves to increase satisfaction of innate needs of not only themselves but also of all those around them in the four pillars of happiness: faith, family, friends and work.
- Loquate’s core competence is intentional community building. Its Smart® groups build community.
- And the greatest happiness or joy occurs Faith wide or community wide, in families, work places, villages, cities, towns and even nations, that uphold the innate needs of all!

Loquate Smart® small groups follow the 3S Smart® protocol:

- self change, not changing another,
- relevant resolution story telling, not advice,

- satisfy innate psychological needs, put into us by our Creator, not ordinary conversation.
- Corresponding scripture (or internet search) is shared.

Principles of Interfaith Dialogue insure no proselytizing during meetings, and use of Smart® Group technology insures “unity for all.”

- Interfaith dialogue is first and foremost an attitude that is acquired as the result of listening to various points of view and ultimately forming one's own view of other religions. An attitude could be defined as a manner of acting or thinking; a disposition, opinion or mental set.
- Interfaith dialogue consists essentially in hearing each other. Interfaith dialogue is living together in spite of our differences. Differences make sense when they are well understood. Be respectful of differences.
- Avoid proselytizing during interfaith dialogue. Be true to your beliefs. State your own beliefs when appropriate.
- But mainly listen well, which means hearing an entire message.
- Build unity. Be united in faith in God, for love of fellow man, for peace on earth, and for the greater glory of God.

Take the retreat on your own or with Jeff who will answer any questions you may have. For a guided retreat please Join Loquate as a general donator if you have not already done so.
