

Why Join a Work Meets Faith small group?

Loquate's vigor is unity for all -- in, through and by Natural Law -- not religious teaching.

Loquate's small group program offers Scientific Momentum Activating Righteous Transformation through Natural Law. The science states innate needs are satisfied by primary values. The innate needs of human kind may be the greatest discovery in Natural Law ever. Like sailors eating limes to prevent scurvy, Smart® habits overcome the scurvy of the human spirit which is diminished motivation and well-being. Interfaith small group members build community in every group of which they are a part, and individually tend toward happiness or joy.

Loquate is comprehensive in this sense. It integrates religious beliefs about Spirit-centered community in unity for all mankind as Biblically or Scripturally possible, nothing more.

A Work Meets Faith small group is a Smart® group because it brings happiness or joy to its members, and sense of community to every group of which they are a part. Smart groups deliver Spirit-centered community. Our Houses of Worship are needed more than ever for spiritual nourishment. Members build an interdependence that is based on the Spirit. As we satisfy innate needs, the Spirit gently works within each of us to help us build out our functional domains of good.

And the greatest happiness or joy occurs in families, work places, villages, cities, towns, and nations, that build community!

The words God, Spirit, and “That which you value the most for the common good” are used interchangeably in our resources.

Work Meets Faith small groups experience “unity for all.”

- A Work Meets Faith small group works in “unity for all” because it follows principles of Interfaith Dialogue and, as a Smart® group, it satisfies innate needs common to all mankind. Thru 12 steps members change themselves to increase satisfaction of innate needs of their own as well as others, defined as forming one functional group.

- Using the Smart® technology builds community.
- And the greatest happiness or joy occurs Parish wide or community wide!

A Work Meets Faith small group follows this Smart® protocol:

- self change, not changing another,
- relevant resolution story telling, not advice,
- satisfy innate psychological needs, put into us by our Creator, not ordinary conversation.
- corresponding scripture (or internet search) is shared.

Principles of Interfaith Dialogue insure no attempting to convert someone from one religion, belief, or opinion to another (no proselytizing during meetings), and use of the Smart® protocol insures “unity for all.”

- Interfaith dialogue is first and foremost an attitude that is acquired as the result of listening to various points of view and ultimately forming one's own view of other religions. An attitude could be defined as a manner of acting or thinking; a disposition, opinion or mental set.
- Interfaith dialogue consists essentially in hearing each other. Interfaith dialogue is living together in spite of our differences. Differences make sense when they are well understood. Be respectful of differences.

- Avoid proselytizing during interfaith dialogue. Be true to your beliefs. State your own beliefs when appropriate.
- But mainly listen well, which means hearing an entire message.
- Build unity. Be united in faith in God, for love of fellow man, for peace on earth, and for the greater glory of God.

In the Work Meets Faith small group

Everyone works in some sense (volunteer, retired, stay at home, or for pay).

- High value Does your faith influence your work? Have you ever wondered: 'Is this the work God wants me to do?' In our Work Meets Faith small group, we believe that God speaks to us thru our interiorly preferred work. By prayer, encouragement and community learn how you can use your faith to influence your work - and to overcome the challenges and obstacles that we all face in our jobs. Not with advice, but with helpful relevant resolution stories. In discovering your interiorly preferred work, your life will become more fulfilled so, in return, you can humbly and gratefully offer it as a gift back to God. Resulting in a deep faith to ask Him to bless you with more of that work. Fulfilling God's natural law of love, you will bring peace to the world.

- There is no cost for materials when you start, or thereafter.

- Low Time Meets 2 hours/month, but not in July, August, or December.

In Summary

- Learn from practical experiences of others on how to bring more faith into your work.
- Man by himself is so frail, but shared experience always guides and holds him up.
- Man is built to live out his faith in community.
- Yet each member is respected for his common sense ability to come to God.

You lead mankind across the threshold into the bosom of God “in unity for all.”
