Loquate's vigor is unity for all -- in, through and by Natural Law -- not religious teaching.

Loquate's small group program offers Scientific Momentum Activating Righteous Transformation through Natural Law. The science states innate needs are satisfied by primary values. The innate needs of human kind may be the greatest discovery in Natural Law ever. Like sailors eating limes to prevent scurvy, Smart® habits overcome the scurvy of the human spirit which is diminished motivation and well-being. Interfaith small group members build community in every group of which they are a part, and individually tend toward happiness or joy.

Loquate is comprehensive in this sense. It integrates religious beliefs about Spirit-centered community in unity for all mankind as Biblically or Scripturally possible, nothing more.

The words God, Spirit, and “That which you value the most for the common good” are used interchangeably in our resources.

About the Spirit We need to be open to the Spirit to recognize the Spirit. The Spirit is a caring presence outside of ourselves that can be invited to reside within ourselves. The Spirit is attracted to us by our surrender to the Spirit in faith.

A gentle way to invoke the Spirit with others is the Smart® protocol used in Loquate's small group program:

- Share relevant resolution stories, not advice.
- Self change, and no one else.
- Satisfy innate needs, not ordinary conversation.
- Saying prayers for each other, that is caring for each other.

The Spirit is connected to relatedness with all people. Relatedness is an innate need scientifically discovered. In the Loquate small group program we make a deeper commitment to one another. We trust one another. We create an interdependence based on the Spirit. We do this thru shared experience around “That which you value the most for the common good.” These are exciting functional domains of good. As an analogy a functional domain of good is like an ice cream sundae...very tasty.

Occasionally a means to build a functional domain of good may occur spontaneously outside of our self. This is what we recognize as the caring presence. Only the Spirit gives miracles. A miracle is a miracle only if our life changes, and we give testimony to that change as from the Spirit. We need to be open to the Spirit to recognize the Spirit. That witness fills our spiritual gas tank.

The Spirit takes people where they are. Miracles are given to everyone. Any person can equally share experience of a miracle in their lives. Granted, this is a special kind of shared experience. Yet by practice in sharing, and hearing others, we create a safe environment for sharing “Miracles, First Hand.”

We see miracles all the time. We can use this shared experience to learn from others. We see others build domains of good, and that makes it easier for us to build ours. A miracle is always for the common good. The miracle is like the cherry on top of the sundae.

But you cannot get around having to change yourself. Let me give you an example from my diary.
