

God's Creed

R057-be

(This came to Jeff Liautaud in prayer as guidance on 1-6-21 at 2:37 AM)

I believe in domain theory, the fruitful life of prayer, obedience to God the Father who is, who was, and who ever shall be. I believe in abundance from the Father in the fruitful domains of our hands, our work to build out functional domains of good, our blessings for all on earth, exclusive of none.

I believe in the holy name of the Trinity as manifested to me in the power of the great Spirit of God everlasting.

I believe in Jesus Christ sent to man as God's only Son to deliver us from our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

I believe in grace from God made manifest in holy religion provided it is washed by primary values to satisfy innate needs by all of its followers with this exception the one true Roman Catholic Church has the keys to the Kingdom of God on earth. It alone has power to forgive sins in confession in remorse and in change. Its Eucharist is the true body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ that I might have a way made manifest to know God in the very existence of His only Son that I might become like Him.

I am most blessed in unity for all humanity in the work of Loquate, "Where Work Meets Faith" as recommended by Deacon Keith Strohm on 2-12-16 to every Pastor of the Catholic Church in his official capacity as Director of Evangelization in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Jeff says: "I am an ad free Catholic. Though I am Catholic, I am for universal mankind in this sense. Like Christ, I am willing to lay down my life for any man. My religion teaches me that."
