

Is a tribesman a tribesman, beyond their hills?

R066-ak

If "Yes," congratulations; then your tribe changes to the whole of mankind.

'No man is an island was first written by the spiritual poet John Donne (1572-1631) in a poem of old English that goes like this:

No man is an Iland, intire of itselfe; every man is a peece of the Continent, a part of the maine; if a Clod bee washed away by the Sea, Europe is the lesse, as well as if a Promontorie were, as well as if a Manor of thy friends or of thine owne were; any mans death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankinde; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; It tolls for thee.

The scientifically proven innate need of relatedness is satisfied by doing that which is truly in the best interests of others. For if you do that which is truly in the best interests of others, you will be ... related. For me the innate need of relatedness knows no boundaries. For if I am called to love any man, I am called to love every man. By man I mean all mankind.

So the question:

Is a tribesman a tribesman, beyond their hills?

may be answered "Yes"; but the tribe changes to the whole of mankind. Do you believe this? For if you do, then you affirm that the innate need of relatedness is built into the psyche of every man. For the One Who created us wanted a backdoor to a purer form of our self.

Throughout the ages one such special man enkindles a spark, a flame, a fire that is unquenchable as our Creator is unquenchable. His fire is the Holy Spirit. Our Lord, Jesus Christ so wished for the blaze to occur He made his way to crucifixion in community... for all mankind.

Matthew 5:44 love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. Good News Translation (GNT)

A tribesman is a tribesman beyond their hills depending on their free will answer. In Natural Law we are called to love everyman.

Loquate Unity for all -- in, through and by Natural Law -- not religious teaching.

Its Work Meets Faith SMART® group program offers Scientific Momentum Activating Righteous Transformation. Like sailors eating limes to prevent scurvy, SMART® habits overcome scurvy of the human spirit which is diminished motivation and well-being. Through faith and prayer members tend toward happiness or joy and increased sense of community in every group of which they are a part.

Loquate is a charitable center for peace that uses Smart® groups for intentional community building. Its core competence is community building around spiritual domains of good. Loquate acts as a ripple organization that defines primary values that satisfy innate needs. Its Natural Law process uniquely relies only on changing oneself, and can be replicated elsewhere to build community. Major charitable support comes from those who believe in its work in "unity for all."

Loquate is comprehensive in this sense. It integrates religious beliefs about community in unity for all mankind as Biblically or Scripturally possible, nothing more. As each in community with his own respective House of Worship goes deeper into devotion, his House of Worship is needed more than ever.
