

A Natural Law of Family

By Jeff Liautaud

R076-ag

There once was a man and his wife that I met when I was very young. I loved being with them. They were my parents, John and Ethel.

My wife Mary Ann also loved to be with her parents, Merc and Bill. Not a week goes by without Mary Ann thinking of her mother, Merc.

There are Bald Eagles on our lake in Northern Wisconsin. Bald Eagles mate for life. So do Loons. Each year we see a new brood of young Eagles and young Loons.

Parents have intercourse to have children. Sex in marriage between a male and a female is sacred.

The Great Spirit speaks in Natural Law. Over time, I have learned the wisdom of being married. Each brings the other to God through our perseverance in over 50 years of marriage.

How will the world accept that what I wrote above was from God?

The world knows God not. One who seeks God alone knows God.

From the time you were born until today you were chosen by God to show your special relationship with God. You are a priest.

As Christ was a single priest, I am to be a married priest. Christ was not gay. He was not bisexual. He was a man created by the power of the Holy Spirit without intercourse. If He wanted to get married, His role as Savior of mankind would be thwarted. He did not choose by His free will to thwart the Father's free will. Rather Christ chose to serve the Father alone as a single man. He elevated the state of manhood to perfection.

It is natural for man to seek a spouse. The right spouse alone serves 2 masters, God and their own spouse. Two, a male and a female alone, not two females nor two males, join in marriage from God as a blessed union.

(At www.adfreecatholic.org search parallel Bibles for Male and Female Genesis 5:2 He created them male and female, blessed them, and named them "Human Beings." Genesis 1:27 So God created human beings, making them to be like himself. He created them male and female.)

(Search Marriage Matthew 19:4 Jesus answered, "Haven't you read the scripture that says that in the beginning the Creator made people male and female? And God said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and unite with his wife, and the two will become one. So they are no longer two, but one. No human being must separate, then, what God has joined together.'")

Man and Woman were created different by God. A sex cannot be changed by an operation. God alone creates a natural Man and a natural Woman.

Satan's attack on humanity has reached its peak. Behind every attack by Satan is the same thought: God does not quite have it right. God has willed married couples to crush Satan. Our works are mighty works, God's mighty works.

Those who follow God's will in marriage are chosen by God to assist God in God's mighty works. Choose God as God has chosen you. If others reject you, God rejects them for they know not God. God's will is mighty.

So since Man and Woman were created by God they are part of what I call Natural Law. I like the word Natural-Law for that implies an order unseen.

God has chosen each of us to add another body of knowledge to our precious life. That body is Natural Law and full disclosure of our family life as witness to the fruits of Natural Law. Give public testimony as your legacy nothing more.

When my spouse and I were informed of a most difficult problem, shocking to hear, we began praying a rosary. We went to mass. At mass I thanked God for this evil at our doorstep that my suffering might bring my righteousness to bare drawing the one causing the suffering to God in me through dialogue. I received communion. From that instant I had peace.

If there were zero dialogue with only angry rejection, that would be false charity. Seems to me that some fruitful ground is always overlooked without dialogue.

On the ride home I shared my thoughts with Mary Ann. I would quell my defense mechanism by the grace of God. I am not to doubt. If I doubt, I bring on Satan. I am to have 100% faith, total trust in God. That alone defeats Satan. Spiritual combat is best fought by God.

I would seek dialogue, first hearing what the one causing the problem had to say by taking a stab at how they felt. Then I would repeat back their thoughts, using their words, asking "Is that it?"

I would draw them out point by point. So they felt understood and respected. Being a good listener consists essentially in hearing an entire message.

Then I would share "with respect to ... I have another point of view. May I share my view?"

Dialogue done right makes us both feel so heard and so understood. So when someone snubs me I praise God. So I can draw the other to my righteousness, God within me, as I stay in dialogue with them, speaking the truth always, journeying with them.

To remember this I think of being a good pickler. When I am in a pickle, I will do the above and stay related, loving them. This may result in a dual experience. On the one hand, I may feel bad about the suffering caused by the difficult problem. On the other hand I seek only to change myself in the sunrise of my new life. It is like falling off a cliff into... my new self.

Natural Law is a great starting point.

Resources

<https://www.loquate.tv/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/R041-ac-Innate-Needs-and-Primary-Values-that-Satisfy-Innate-Needs.pdf>

Scientifically proven innate needs cited by hundreds of thousands of Academic Research Articles confirm the scientific foundation of Natural Law.

Published by Loquate (6436 N Oketo Ave, Chicago, IL 60631, United States. Call jeff@loquate.tv 773-621-0863.