

Declaration – Mary’s declaration is to give back to God her area of meaningful expansion for herself, work she prefers doing which is being a prayer warrior. She treasures her early morning prayer and asks for more, Holy Spirit, more.

Being in our small group, supports an interdependence based on the Spirit.

Forgiveness

Forgiveness should not be confused with reconciliation.

Forgiveness is a decision that one person can make independent of all other persons.

Reconciliation requires a mutual decision.

Forgiveness may be the first step toward reconciliation, but reconciliation is not necessary for forgiveness.

While forgiveness is possible without reconciliation; reconciliation is not possible without forgiveness.

Forgiveness is NOT a feeling; it is an act of the WILL.

Feelings cannot necessarily be controlled; behavior can be controlled.
