

How to become a Smart® Ambassador of Community.

R117-aL

A Smart® Ambassador of Community realizes the fruits of peace, happiness and joy are its own reward, and becoming mentor certified is a good which may always be returned. Mentors are peers like yourself who return the favor. Any sponsoring organization is to be highly commended in unity for all mankind.

The Smart® Program is Unlike Any Other

The Smart® Ambassador of Community program is unlike any other volunteer program because it covers the whole community of the sponsoring organization. The sociological and economic forces of today cause people to volunteer less, join fewer volunteer groups, and contribute less as a donor. The Smart® Ambassador of Community program builds growth at the core of the organization, reinforces every volunteer organization, and every neighbor touched in its outreach. Sponsors cover the costs and objectives. So the entire program is free and self administered by volunteers on their own time.

How You Get Certified

All participation occurs as a volunteer and not during working hours. Small group meetings occur by Zoom or in person.

Eligibility occurs upon successful completion of courses to earn a certificate as a Smart® Ambassador of Community.

To be certified, you present to the sponsor a copy of the saved documentation below.

Certification

1. You regularly attended Work Meets Faith Smart® group meetings. (See Commitment resource below). Save your cumulative set of participation feedback documentation for each Smart® group meeting that you attend.

2. You completed for free the required hours of mentored coursework to earn a certificate as a Smart® Ambassador of Community. To get certified, save a cumulative set of all signed mentor documentation of completion.
3. Submit one copy of your documentation to Registrar@Loquate.org and one copy to your sponsoring organization, if any:
  - a. Your cumulative set of participation feedback sheets are the documentation for each meeting you attended.
  - b. Your cumulative set of sufficient signed mentor documentation must equal or exceed the course hours of credit for the certification you are seeking as a Smart® Ambassador of Community.
4. Your sponsoring organization, St. Ferdinand, becomes aware of your gift to them as a Smart® Ambassador of Community for them. They are deeply grateful.
5. There are 3 Degrees of mentored certification as a Smart® Ambassador of Community over a three year period of experience: 1st - 81 hours, 2nd - 54 hours, and 3rd - 27 hours, but only one certification will be allowed per year. Registrar@Loquate.org will email your certification to you and to your sponsoring organization, St. Ferdinand.
