Life After Facilitation Training

The facilitation training is where you learn the nitty gritty of the genuine Smart® process. After that opportunities abound:

- You may form your own genuine Smart® group. You would meet at a regular time of your choice such as the second Wednesday monthly 9x per year by zoom for two hours but not in July, August or December.
- Or you can join an existing Smart® group.
- Upon completion of your facilitation training you will receive a hyperlink for free access to our resources of over 150 articles.
- If you are interested, volunteer mentors help you become Smart® Ambassadors of community at no cost.
- Loquate is like a natural food that refreshes oneself, and refreshes all mankind.

Loquate's Mission

- To develop the member's diversity and sense of shared humanity thru self-awareness,
- To develop a sense of community in Smart® groups of self-aware members,
- To develop the sense of community within the larger group or organization of which they are a part,
- To develop the larger group or organization into a catalyst for the sense of community in its surrounding environment,
- To spread the sense of community throughout our fragile world using Smart® groups to serve as a model for peace.

Resources

Resources are logical courses flowing from innate needs. In some instances, integration with religious beliefs is needed, but only optionally. Therefore all resources are labeled and you may skip any that do not pertain to you. All religions are invited to share their resources with us provided they are in unity for all mankind with respect to satisfying innate needs as Biblically or Scripturally possible, nothing more. Upon approval by Loquate they will be included in our resources.
