"WHERE WORK MEETS FAITH"

There are 2
pluralistic paths
to come to God.

One is Natural Law made easy for the first time by and between Loquate and Deci and Ryan's theory of innate needs.

The other is traditional religion and it's scripture.

Both work.

The difference is this.

As long as you believe in That which you value the most for the common good, what God is, then the Smart® Natural Law path is like a vein of gold within that may be scientifically exploited.

In short, it works!

Loquate is

THE X FACTOR

X factor is

*Freedom to live
your deepest beliefs in harmony with all.*

A Unique Smart[®] group process. We take turns stating our prayer intentions praying for each other.

Interfaith Dialogue insures no proselytizing during meetings, and insures “unity for all.”

- Interfaith dialogue is first and foremost an attitude that is acquired as the result of listening to various points of view and ultimately forming one's own view of other religions. An attitude could be defined as a manner of acting or thinking; a disposition, opinion or mental set.
- Interfaith dialogue consists essentially in hearing each other. Interfaith dialogue is living together in spite of our differences. Differences make sense when they are well understood. Be respectful of differences.
- Avoid proselytizing during interfaith dialogue. Be true to your beliefs. State your own beliefs when appropriate.
- But mainly listen well, which means hearing an entire message.
- Build unity. Be united in faith in God, for love of fellow man, for peace on earth, and for the greater glory of God.

Universal language includes atheists, agnostics, and believers of all faiths.

We use interchangeably the words That which you value the most for the common good, Spirit, and God.

There is no law against praying for each other.

The First Amendment to the United States Constitution prohibits the making of any law respecting an establishment of religion, impeding the free exercise of religion, abridging the freedom of speech. Even the $1 bill contains the inscription “In God We trust.”

The small group follows the 3S protocol:

- Share relevant resolution stories, not advice,
- Self-change, and no one else
- Satisfy innate needs, not ordinary conversation.

Follow the Odd Rule

The Odd Rule is to call on others when the facilitator most wishes to speak. The Loquate small group is designed as a flat group. A flat group has no hierarchy. Facilitators practice the Odd Rule, giving power back to the members. If what you wanted to say still has not been said, you may share it.

All members take annual turns being a facilitator.

15 minute Awareness Component

Includes 12 steps and courses from a scheduled mentor for each session. The mentor is assigned ahead of time as the next following focus person.

Each session has a scheduled focus person.

Focus Person drives the meeting.

One focus person per meeting. Each Focus person selects ahead of time one of 4 agendas in unison with that year's facilitator.

1. Agenda 1—share a concern you have about your handling of some God thing at work.
2. Agenda 2—declare preferred work as a gift in humility back to God.
3. Agenda 3—Focus person selects one of 10 discussion questions.
4. Agenda 4 – Focus person shares deepest beliefs. (Hint: The job of all other members is to adhere to Principles of Interfaith dialogue with the aid of the facilitator.)

Does anyone have a Miracle, First Hand to share?

Miracles come from a caring presence outside of our selves. We each carry a spiritual gas tank on our back. When you share your Miracle, First Hand, you fill our spiritual gas tanks.

Feedback measures community.

Overall scores of all Smart[®] groups' since inception in 2016 average score is 98%.

That is an A+ on a scale of 0% to 100%.

Scores for each individual member are high only if the unique Smart[®] process is followed in faithful attendance.

Each member is part of the team in unity for all.

Community scientifically proven.

Makes where you work, a best place to work.

Makes where you live a best place to live.
